NEWSLETTER SPRING/SUMMER 2010

Welcome to our spring/summer 2010 newsletter!

Office Launch

SAAS launched their new office this year with Stokes top talent winner Su Annagib, Su our new patron has some really good fundraising ideas and plans to hold a variety show later this year with all proceeds going to SAAS.

The open day was attended by The Sentinel, County Councilor Steve Sweeney, Council Leader Simon Tagg, Staffordshire Community Foundation, Patron Su Annagib, Gill Devgon plus SAAS trustees and members.

New Patrons

Pete Conway and Su Annagib join Professor Simon Baron-Cohen from Cambridge university as patrons of SAAS. Pete is really pleased to be associated with SAAS and will be compering our charity variety show. Su winner of Stokes Top Talent is a media lecturer by day at Stoke-on-Trent College and knows quite a lot about Autism/Asperger Su has worked with students with the condition and also looks after a severely autistic adult at weekends as a carer. SAAS are really pleased to have both Pete and Su on board!

Outings/Events

Members have enjoyed attending events including tenpin bowling our second anniversary party and Christmas party.

Sarah Brown Meeting-10 Downing Street

Kevin met with Sarah Brown in December at 10 Downing Street. The meeting brought autism charities together for the first time. Over 30 people attended the meeting and talked about partnership working and how autism charities can work together to achieve common aims. The event was a success and Sarah Brown hopes to do a follow up meeting in the near future.

Christmas Party

Over 80 members attended our Disco/ Buffet with a special guest appearance from no other than SANTA himself. A good time was had by one and all. A big thank you to Sue Chandler for organising this year's Christmas party.

Gary Mckinnon

In December Kevin attended London Demo outside the Home Office for Gary Mckinnon. To follow the news on this please visit: www.kevinhealy.net.

Sponsored Parachute Jump for SAAS

By pledging to do a sponsored parachute jump you can raise money for the Staffordshire Adults Autistic Society and have the experience of a lifetime. Jumping from a perfectly serviceable airplane takes a good deal of courage. Just ask your friends, family and work colleagues how much they are prepared to pay you to jump out of an aircraft, and put that money to the cause.

Generally anyone who is of reasonable fitness and 16 or more years old can take part. There is generally a weight limit of 15st for the jump

minimum sponsorship £500 (this includes your jump priced at approx £275-which includes £50 deposit to be paid ASAP- the rest of the donation goes to SAAS

If you are interested and want to know more details drop us an email infoasaas@ntlworld.com
